Subject: Narrowed list of names for subpoena to Mossack Fonseca & Co.

Dennis,

Based on our telephone conversation a moment ago, I understand that your client, Mossack Fonseca & Co. ("Mossack"), is unwilling to agree to any arrangement in an attempt to address NML's concern that its willingness to narrow the July 18, 2014 subpoena to your client (the "July 18 Subpoena") will be used by Mossack, one of Jason Wiley's clients or Kent Woods's client as "evidence" that the July 18 Subpoena (or another subpoena served by NML in the same litigation) was overbroad.

I fear that Mossack's unwillingness even to attempt to address this issue does not bode well for the prospects of reaching an overall agreement on settlement of the July 18 Subpoena. Nonetheless, in the interest of moving this process forward, NML agrees to narrow the July 18 Subpoena by substituting the following lists of entities and persons for those set forth in the original July 18 Subpoena. By agreeing to narrow the subpoena in this way, NML in no way waives the right to seek information concerning any person and entity not included in this list in the future from Mossack or from any other person.
